

Histone Antibodies

Order Name: HISTONE AB
 Test Number: 5564350
 Revision Date: 12/12/2022

TEST NAME	METHODOLOGY	LOINC CODE
Histone Antibodies	Enzyme-Linked Immunosorbent Assay (ELISA)

SPECIMEN REQUIREMENTS

Specimen	Specimen Volume (min)	Specimen Type	Specimen Container	Transport Environment
Preferred	1 mL (0.3)	Serum	Clot Activator SST	Room Temperature
Instructions	Notes: 0.3 mL (Note: This volume Does NOT allow for repeat testing.) Specimen Type: Red-top tube or serum gel tube Specimen Storage: Maintain specimen at room temperature. Specimen Collection: Not Available Specimen Stability: Ambient: 14 days, Refrigerated : 14 days, Frozen: 14 days

GENERAL INFORMATION

Expected TAT	2 - 5 days
Clinical Use	Histone Antibody is present in 80-95% of patients with drug-induced systemic lupus erythematosus (SLE), 20-50% of patients with idiopathic SLE, and infrequently in patients with other autoimmune connective tissue diseases.
Notes	Labcorp Test Code: 012518
CPT Code(s)	83516
Service Provided By	 labcorp Oklahoma, Inc.